Y. P. & C. E.—The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor has changed their meeting from Sunday night to Friday night, the 1st of building up a large and enthusiastic society.

PRIVATE VETERANS.—In the invitation of the 6th Annual Reunion of the Confederate Veterans at Richmond, Va., on 30th to July 2d, 1896. Any man that may wish to attend will please notify A. W. Bascom, Adjutant of the 6th Annual Reunion, at Richmond, Va., or to the E. K. Asylum at Lexington, Monday afternoon, in charge of Marshal A. N. Denton and S. P. Steele. Old age and ill health were the cause of his bad mental condition.

J. W. HAMILTON'S DEATH.—J. W. Hamilton, whose illness was mentioned in our last issue, died last Friday of heart failure. His remains were taken Saturday to Nicholas county for interment. Mr. Hamilton was about 53 years of age. He leaves a wife and three children. He was a son of Eli Hamilton, who has been seriously ill at the same time for several weeks past. The family of the deceased have the sympathy of their friends in their bereavement.

RATLIFF-ALLEN.—Adrian Ratliff, son of W. H. Ratliff, the Sharpsburg grocer, and Miss Imogene Allen, daughter of President F. S. Allen of the Sharpsburg Exchange

Bank, were wedded in Cincinnati, at the Palace Hotel, April 15th. They are popular young society people belonging to the most prominent families of that town. The bride is a handsome and accomplished young lady and a leader in social circles. The bridegroom is a young business man, who has many friends. There were no parental objections to the marriage, the trip to Cincinnati being for the pleasure of the young couple.

Mrs. MIRANDA HORMAN'S DEATH.—Mrs. Miranda Horman had been in declining health for about two years past, becoming seriously ill within the past few months, and was confined to her bed for several weeks prior to her death, which occurred at 3 o'clock Saturday morning, April 18th. Her ailment was a stomach disease, that gradually sapped away her vitality. She was tenderly nursed, had the best medical aid and every attention that kind friends could bestow, but their blessed ministrations could only smooth the pathway to the grave. She was a deeply religious lady, and with the consolations afforded by her religious convictions, met death bravely and cheerfully, her only regret at leaving this life being the parting with her family and friends.

Funeral services by Elder G. W. Porter, pastor of the Christian Church, were held at the family residence at three o'clock Sunday afternoon, after which the interment took place in the Owingville Cemetery in the presence of a large assembly of mourners and others who paid their last respects to the deceased. The pall-bearers were J. T. Kimbrough, John D. McIntyre, John A. Ramsey, Jas. T. Atchison, A. S. Thomas, L. D. Harris, C. W. Honaker, Jr., and J. J. Nesbitt.

Deceased was a daughter of Martin and Nancy Honaker, both deceased. She was born on Naylor's Branch, Bath Co., June 11th, 1816, and grew up to womanhood there and in the Wyoming vicinity. She was wedded to Richard Horman, on Oct. 26, 1841, and they resided in Wyoming precinct for several years. Two children were born of this union, both residing now in this town: Annie, wife of James F. Day, and Jefferson N. Horman, a student in E. S. Shrou's establishment. Deceased removed with her family to this town in the latter part of 1888. She was of a devoutly religious nature and from the time of her uniting with the Christian church in her girlhood she tried to live up conscientiously to its teachings. She was a good and true woman, warm-hearted to her family and friends and kind to all, being tenderly helpful in sickness, assisting the needy to the extent of her ability, and generously serving persons and a hospitable hostess to all who visited her cheerful home. She was liked and esteemed by a large circle of friends, who knew the kindness and gentleness of her nature, and who sincerely mourn her decease. Her bereaved family have the sympathy of their many friends in this sorrow, that fell upon them with crushing weight, notwithstanding their long and happy life, which was stricken with a disease that would probably prove fatal.

IN MEMORIAM.—On the 20th of February the home of B. G. Wheatley, in Mason Co., was a scene of sorrow, as the loved ones gathered around the bed of the daughter Amanda, and witnessed the close of her short life. For ten long weeks she had patiently suffered while physicians and relatives vainly tried to stay the destructive work of the fever; but the summons had come and so in the twenty-first year, in the bloom of youth, when life seemed beautiful and bright, she went away. One longing to stay, faintly spoken and then methinks the weary soul caught a glimpse of the glory beyond the skies and sank quietly away to rest, while the last faint rays of the winter sun glimmered down and the breeze of the departing day mourned in sympathy. Mr. Wheatley was absent and her last words were: "Tell Papa good-bye." Many friends and relatives followed the corpse to its last resting-place in the Shannon Church-yard, and many who knew and loved her. The event of her death will cause life to seem deprived of much of its gladness. But let us not wish to call her from that home so sweet and peaceful, but rather remember that "We have no time to charm away

 Bad dreams that through the eyelids creep,
 But never doleful dream again
 Shall break the happy slumber when
 He gives his beloved sleep."

TOBACCO MARKET AND BATH TOBACCO SALES IN LOUISVILLE.—[Condensed from the Courier-Journal.]—April 14th.—Market opened with inferior offerings and a dull and unsatisfactory tone. A large part of the offerings were reviews and generally went at lower prices.

April 15th.—Market decidedly more active. Increased demand for low-grade burley fillers; colors are also in strong demand. Offerings not up to usual quality for Wednesday. Highest price, $19.

BATH SALES.—1 hhd, new leaf at $7.70; 2, new hogs, $6.70, 6.50; 1, new trash, $3.70.

April 16th.—Market irregular and unsatisfactory except in good tobacco in good condition, which sold as well as ever. Bad ordered tobacco very low.

April 17th.—Breaks small, and as usual on Friday, consisted almost entirely of reviews. Market stronger than expected, closed unchanged, but with sharp discrimination as to condition. Receipts continue light.

BATH SALES.—2 hhd, new hogs at $5.20, 4.30; 1, new trash, $2.30.

TOBACCO REPORT.—EXPRESSLY FOR THE OUTLOOK, BY J. B. HAZELRIGG, Louisville, Ky.—April 18, 1896.—There was no noticeable change in our market this week. The demand was about the same, and prices showed no quotable difference. The tobacco offered was generally very soft and heating up, making sales almost a necessity, and, still, the rejections were 1,014 hds., which is thirty per cent. of the offerings. The receipts were only 1,428 hds., against 3,151 for the same week last year. The receipts for the year 1896 to date are 43,838, against 48,698 for the same date last year. The sales for 1896 to date are 63,995, against 65,685 for the same time last season. The sales this week are 3,793, against 4,684 the same week in 1895. Private sales this week, 376 hds. Once more let us repeat our advice of last week: Prize your tobacco in safe keeping order, and, as soon as you can, ship it, that you may be able to take advantage of any advance, about planting time. But if necessary hold till after June 1st, for we do expect a better demand with an advance in values.

COMMITTEE TO PREPARE FOR THE SIXTH ANNUAL REUNION OF THE UNITED CONFEDERATE VETERANS.

RICHMOND, VA., March 25, 1896.—To the United Confederate Veterans Everywhere:—Your Sixth Annual Reunion will be held at Richmond, Virginia, on the 30th June, 1st and 2d days of July next.

Widely scattered since the war by the ties of family and old-time firesides, by the demands of business, by your natural energies, and by the necessities of life, you are coming home—home to the city which is yours by the supreme tests of the rain of fire through which you went, and of the sea of blood through which you passed, on the mission of her and the common defence. You have been no prodigal sons, for you inherited only the remnants of a rapacious ravage that was rampant everywhere in your land; because you had nothing left but the manhood from which you were inseparable. But the fatted calf shall be killed for you, and we shall be merry together, not because of pity for your sins, but because pride in your fame demands it.

You shall traverse again the streets which thrilled to the tread of your legions while they were passing to the ranks of the best army the world ever knew.

You shall be confronted by the Virginians who were the comrades of your immortal glory and who are your brothers forever.

You shall see again the women who nursed you back to vigor from the feebleness of wounds and want, from the wretched woe of your losses, and who pointed the dying gaze of your fellows to the heaven which stooped to enfold them.

Your eyes shall behold for themselves the city which proudly wrapped herself in your patriotic flames, from which she has emerged a thing of beauty and joy for always.

You shall revisit the battlefields which have been consecrated by your blood, and where, if you lost your country, you found a home that fills the world.

Heartily helped by our city and her citizens, we are building for you a place of reunion in which you shall find a home, and we will bring to the music of Dixie and to the chorus of the Rebel yell.

On some appropriate day of the Reunion you shall be part and parcel of the rearing of that monument which shall be to Jefferson Davis, not merely because he was your President and dwelt as such in the capital of your confederacy, but because he was the unspokeable type of that ineffable manhood which made the armies of the South.

During your stay here there will be many a brouhaha, where, not in bravado or dissoluteness, but for sweet memory's sake, will be sung over again the old songs, told over again the old tales, fought over again the old battles, yelled again the old yell, and raised again the old flag.

Come, then. Come to our hearts and homes and to these brouhahas. Before we pass to the great beyond we ought to have one more bout and toast together. The toast shall be to our own memories and to our Confederate comrades wherever they may be, but it shall carry along with it a brave blessing for our fellow-citizens everywhere, a determined devotion to the safety, honor, and welfare of the entire country.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gundermann, of Hammond, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost miraculous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church, at River Junction, she was brought down with Pneumonia, succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and I became so exhausted that I was unable to do my duty. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery. It was quick. Her work was highly satisfactory in result." Trial bottles free at J. M. Burt's drugstore, Owingville, Ky. Regular size 50c and $1.00.
